B.Com (Accountancy Major) Course Outcome

The course will provide theoretical as well as practical knowledge in the different field of accounting such as financial accounting, management accounting, cost accounting etc., Students will be also able to demonstrate progressive learning of various tax issues and tax forms related to individuals and business, the role of accounting in society and business. With the introduction of NEP, accounting graduates will demonstrate a base of knowledge, skills and professionals orientation consistant with the accounting profession. Practical lab work in accounting helps the students to acquire quantitative skills to solve business problems and to take business opportunities. Additionaly Students will also gain proficiency in areas like GST, taxation, costing, and financial management, with a focus on practical application, industry readiness, and analytical skills for problem-solving. The curriculum is designed to foster ethical values and entrepreneurial skills, preparing students for careers in accounting, finance, and taxation, as well as for further studies.

After passing out with accountancy major the students will be able to prove proficiency with the ability to engage in different field like M.Com, CA, CS, MBA, CMA and other courses. Moreover the course prepares students in setting up a computerized set of accounting. Students can also acquire practical skills to work as tax consultant, audit assistant and other financial supporting services. It is to be mentioned here that a good no of students graduated from the department have engaged in different Govt. as well as Private job. Moreover some of the students also engaged themselves as entrepreneur.