Editorial

In today's globalised world the scope of political science becoming more and wider. End of cold war and LPG has changed the world structure and also structure of national politics, which have impact on the social, political and economic life of the common people. At present time the demand for political science is increasing in the academic fields because the society can be studied from various angles by the political scientists. The department of the Political Science of the college started to spread its knowledge from the very of the college. From its very beginning department is actively contributed to the development of the students and making them aware about their rights, liberty, justice etc. For creating awareness among the people and study their socio-political and socio-economic condition department has arranged field trips and survey programs in nearby villages and other places. As we feel the students of the department should have knowledge of society and politics of Assam, we sometime arrange educational tour to different places of historical importance and other places. I am thankful to respected HOD and all colleagues of the department for giving me such kind of department.

Few lines from the Head of the Department

Dear Students, Faculty, and Readers,

I am delighted to welcome you to yet another edition of our Department of Political Science's bulletin. This bulletin has always been a reflection of the vibrant intellectual community that thrives within our department, and I am immensely proud of the contributions made by our students and faculty.

As we navigate through the complex and ever-changing world of politics, this bulletin serves as a valuable resource for updated concepts, information, and data. Our students have exhibited remarkable dedication and creativity in their contributions, demonstrating a keen interest in exploring contemporary political issues and global affairs. I encourage all our students to actively engage with the bulletin, not only as readers but as potential contributors for future editions.

Our faculty members continue to be at the forefront of political research, and their contributions to this bulletin showcase their expertise and dedication to the field. They serve as mentors and guides to our students, helping them develop their research skills and encouraging them to think critically about the world around them.

I would also like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the hard work put in by the editorial team that has curated and assembled this bulletin. Their commitment to maintaining the quality and relevance of the content is truly commendable.

As we move forward, let us remember that the study of political science is not just an academic pursuit; it is a quest to comprehend and influence the world we live in. The knowledge and insights gained here have the power to shape societies, influence policies, and contribute to positive change.

I encourage everyone in our department to continue their pursuit of knowledge and to engage in meaningful discussions and debates. Together, we can continue to make a meaningful impact on the field of political science and society at large.

Thank you for your dedication and enthusiasm, and I look forward to seeing the continued growth and success of our department.

Sincerely,

Dr. Phanindra Kalita
HOD, Department of Political Science

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE - At a Glance

"The human essence is the true collectivist essence"
- Karl Marx

The dream of Chhaygoan to establish a higher educational institution and glory of Chhaygaon College came into existence in 6th September, 1974. From the very beginning of the College, the department of Political Science has been spreading its knowledge among the students community. The department provides both the Major/Honours and General/Regular courses to the students and produces many human resources in the wellbeing of the wider society.

History of the Department:

Chhaygaon College was established on 6th September, 1974 with a view to imparting higher education in the greater Chhaygaon area and the Department of Political Science was started with due permission from Gauhati University vide its Memo No-G/AFF/120/74/12495 dated 21.08.74 with Pre-University course along with the very inception of the College.

The Two-Year Degree Course with General Course was introduced in the Department of Political Science in the academic year 1979-80. Major course in degree level was started from the academic session 1985-86 with due permission from Gauhati University.
