

PROGRAMME & COURSE OUTCOME FOR ARTS & COMMERCE

Sessions : 2020-2021 & 2021-2022

Session: 2020-21 & 2021-22

Dept of History

Program Outcome-

Under graduate course in History Major help the students to develop an understanding of the world. Through history, we can learn how past societies, systems, ideologies, governments, cultures and technologies were built, how they operated, and how they have changed. The rich history of the world helps us to paint a detailed picture of where we stand today. Students of history learn to consider multiple viewpoints and changing global contexts. Doing so increases cultural literacy and cultural sensitivity, both of which are increasingly important in today's globalized world.

Program specific outcome-

The history course in under graduate is not only designed around state-mandated textbooks, standardized tests, and the simple memorization of names and dates. Rather, college history focuses on human experiences and explaining why the world is the way that it is. Therefore, history offers a unique opportunity to explore your personal interests because everything has a history: nations, wars, ethnic groups, sexuality, music, gambling, sports, art, science, medicine, law, business, economics, education, and so on.

Course outcome

Studying History offers students to access, skills, and opportunity. Studying History provides access to the whole world—not just to the past, but to the present that grew out of the past. Studying History teaches students to vital, widely applicable skills—interdisciplinary research, analysis, writing, and oral communication. Studying History will help students to build a career—anything from business to government to education to the law, and beyond.
