Street play performed at Chhaygaon college

Assam Rising Chhaygaon, February 12: A street play entitled 'Juji Jan' (We Will Fight) performed by the students of the English dept of Chhaygaon college on February 8 last in the playground, in the presence of the teachers and the students of the College. The plot of the play centers round the theme of the Covid-19 pandemic and its impact on the lives of common people and students. It is worth mentioning that the script of the play is written and directed by the students themselves. After the performance, Dhiren Ch. Das, HoD Hindi, Arup Kr. Medhi, HoD History, Pratiba Choudhury, in-charge librarian, and Mrs. Sharmila Roy Das, HoD English commented on the performance and inspired the students of the department. Before that, the same day the 9th issue of 'Miscellany', a yearly academic journal of the students of the department of English, Chhaygaon College was released. In the presence of the teachers and students, Miscellany was formally released by the Academic in-Charge of the College Kamal Thakuria. In his speech, he praised the endeavor of the students of the department of English inspiring the students of other departments to engage themselves in more such creative works.
